DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-9 would be allowable if rewritten to correct minor grammatical errors.
2. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:
3. Claims 1-9 are allowable over the prior art of record because the latter, either alone or in combination, does not disclose nor render obvious a connector comprising a housing with a through hole and a recess to hold a spring, lugs on the housing that attach to cavities in an assembly part, and reducing holes on the assembly part through which a shaft portion of a cover is engaged in combination with the rest of the claimed limitations.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Application 10/914429 filed by applicant on 8/9/2004 had many of the limitations of claim 1. However, U.S. Patent Application 10/914429 did not include limitations directed to an assembly part with a pair of second opposite sidewalls with reducing holes or to a pair of lugs on a housing that interconnect with a pair of cavities on an assembly part. Therefore, a double patenting rejection would not be proper.
5. Matasek et al (US 6,361,218 B1) teach a fiber optic connector module with many of the limitations of claim 1. The module includes a cover but does not include reducing holes to which the shaft of the cover is inserted. Also, Matasek et al do not teach a spring recess or a through hole in the housing.

Art Unit: 2883

6. Liu (US 6,739,765 B1) teaches a socket for a fiber optic connector. While Liu teaches many of the limitations of claim 1, Liu does not teach the use of lugs and cavities to connect the assembly part with the housing. Furthermore, Liu does not teach reducing holes to which the shaft of the cover is attached. Liu also does not teach a through hole through which an end of the spring projects.

7. Satoh (US 2002/0191921 A1) teaches an optical connector. Satoh teaches many of the limitations of claim 1. However, Satoh does not teach that the housing includes a through hole through which an end of the spring projects. Satoh also does not teach the use of lugs and cavities to connect the housing to an assembly part. Satoh does not teach the use of reducing holes to which the shaft of the cover is inserted.

8. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

9. Claims 1-9 are objected to because of the following informalities: the phrase “connector for optical transmitting and receiving device” should apparently be “connector for an optical transmitting and receiving device”. Appropriate correction is required.

10. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: the phrase “on outer surface” in lines 3 and 4 should apparently be “on an outer surface”. The phrase “of both opposite sidewalls” lacks antecedent basis and should apparently be “of a pair of opposite sidewalls”. The term “both” implies two pairs of sidewalls (4 walls total) when only two walls have the groove. Appropriate correction is required.

11. The above-mentioned informalities are examples of the many other grammatical and typographical errors in claims 1-9. There are too many informalities for the examiner to list in this action. Applicant should proofread the claims and correct all of the minor informalities.

12. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the phrase “connector for optical transmitting and receiving device” should apparently be “connector for an optical transmitting and receiving device”. The hand-drawn character in line 4 is also improper and should be replaced with a standard character that can be captured and recorded in the Office’s automated information system. The character can also be replaced with written text describing the desired shape. There are several other grammatical and typographical errors in the abstract. Applicant should proofread the abstract and correct all minor informalities. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

13. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The hand-drawn character in line 23 of page 2 is also improper and should be replaced with a standard character that can be captured and recorded in the Office’s automated information system. The character can also be replaced with written text describing the desired shape. The title “Description of the Prior Arts” in line 7 of page 1 should apparently be “Description of the Prior Art”. The phrase “connector for optical transmitting and receiving device” in line 6 of page 1 should apparently be “connector for an optical transmitting and receiving device”. There are several other grammatical and typographical errors in the specification. Applicant should proofread the abstract and correct all minor informalities. Appropriate correction is required.

14. Figures 9 and 10 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
